VOLUME III, No. 8 Wednesday, December 17, 1980

Retiring warden Malcolm MacGillivray helps Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey into the robe after he was selected Warden of Haliburton County for 1981. The new warden was selected at a special meeting of County Council held Monday night.

Dysart reeve named warden for 1981-- predicts difficult year

Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey has been chosen the 1981 Warden for Haliburton County. The selection was made at a special meeting of the County Council held Monday evening.

Fearrey takes over as Warden from Malcolm MacGillivray who just completed his second term as head of the county government. Fearrey was acclaimed to the office of reeve in Dysart et al during the recent municipal elections.

The new warden was the only municipal official to be nominated for the position and his selection was by acclamation. The choice of the reeves and deputy reeves who form the county council, was endorsed by both MP Bill Scott and MPP John Eakins who were in attendance.

In his address to the councillors the new Warden predicted that 1981 would be a difficult year for Haliburton County. He cited spiralling interest rates, the slack market for timber products and a general slump in the economy as reasons for a difficult year. He predicted unemployment would be high this year in the county.

However, Fearrey noted that while these problems are provincial or national in scope, the councillors and citizens of the county could take action to counteract them. "Collectively we can attack these problems," he told the councillors.

He told the meeting that increased support was needed for the tourist industry in the county, that the county officials must continue to pursue the financial assistance that could be made available to the area through DREE (Department of Regional Economic Expansion) funding. "We must not fail to grasp every economic opportunity that comes along," the new Warden said. "Whether it offers employment for one person or many, we must take advantage of whatever comes our way".

Fearrey said he had a great deal of optimism in the future of the county. "All of us sitting around this table must have a feeling of optimism for the county or we wouldn't be here," Fearrey stated.

Commenting on the items of concern for the coming year, Fearrey said a review was needed of the planning strategy recently prepared by the county for areas outside of Dysart et al which has its own official plan. The new warden said the strategy would have to be studied in light of recent decisions with regard to subdivisions in the Minden area. In particular he was concerned that the strategy does not deal with lakeshore development and capacities and said he wanted the plan to tie in with the official plan in place within his own municipality.

"There is a need for more police manpower in the county," the new warden told the meeting. The comment was made in light of recent requests from the Haliburton Village merchants that 24 hour patrols be instituted in the county.

Fearrey also suggested that a forest management and promotion scheme be undertaken to make better use of the forest resources in the county.

He pointed out that a number of union contracts with county employees will be coming due in 1981 and that the councillors will have to work out what is best for the employees, the taxpayers and other businesses in the community.

After reiterating that it will be a difficult year, the warden called on the members of the council for "hard work and involvement if we are to succeed in the tasks that lie ahead."

Cummins to fill vacancy

Larry Cummins has been selected to fill the vacant council seat on the Anson, Hindon and Minden Township council. Appointment to the seat was made by the other members of council at the inaugural meeting held December 9 at the Minden community centre.

Cummins is expected to be sworn in to the post this morning (December 17) as the new council holds a regular meeting at the council chambers.

Cummins was an unsuccessful candidate in the November 10 municipal election. He tied with Ed Pergolas for the fourth and final spot on the council. Following a recount the seat was awarded to Pergolas.

In the meantime, successful candidate Dean Elliott had resigned from his seat before actually taking office. The responsibility for filling the vacancy then fell to the new council.

OPP detachment will not relocate says sergeant

"There are no plans whatsoever to move the Haliburton County detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police from its present location on Highway 35 at Minden to Haliburton Village". These are the words of Sergeant Bill Bailey, local detachment commander, in response to reports contained in last week's edition of Haliburton County Echo.

The sergeant explained in an interview with The Times on Tuesday that the suggestion the detachment be relocated was taken out of context. He noted that he was speaking at a meeting of the Dysart et al council concerning policing problems in Haliburton Village. He said his comments at the time were that Haliburton Village provided a more geographically advantageous location for the detachment since the village was centrally located in the county.

The detachment commander commented in the interview that the location of the office on the west side of the county did create some problems when reaching the outlying sections. The long distances and lack of manpower were two of the main problems cited by Bailey. He compared the situation with asking the OPP detachment in Downsview to dispatch officers to patrol Barrie. "It is the distance that is killing us," the sergeant staged.

However he reiterated that there was no intention of moving the detachment from its present location. "We are in the middle of a twenty year lease and have no intention of moving out," he said. He commented that the owner of the building recently agreed to carry out a number of renovations and that this meant the office was even less likely to vacate the present building.

The sergeant had met with the Dysart council to respond to their concerns about policing. Merchants in Haliburton Village are particularly upset with the break-in December 5 at the Bernstein store. The elderly owner of the store was forced to stand outside in freezing weather and attempt to open a safe which had just been removed from the store. The intruders later fled the scene taking the unopened safe and its $3000 contents with them. A front window of the same store was broken two days later and a quantity of goods removed from the showcase.

The Haliburton merchants have been seeking extra patrols, all night policing and the location of a police office in their community. It has also been suggested that if members of the detachment resided in the community they could respond more quickly to emergency calls particularly during the early morning hours when regular patrols cease.

Sergeant Bailey pointed out that he cannot dictate where his staff members reside. He said the possibility of having a sub office located in Haliburton Village is very slim as such offices are very expensive to operate. As to 24 hour patrols, the sergeant noted that budget restraint and manpower restrictions means he can only provide a certain number of shifts.

Bailey pointed out that his detachment has one of the highest crime clearance rates in the Peterborough district. He also noted that a review of statistics has shown that the Haliburton Village area is not the target of any more incidents than Minden. "Haliburton gets its share of policing," he commented.

The sergeant said the detachment was probably located in Minden because of the major highway location. The detachment has been here since 1971, according to the sergeant, and the location was chosen because of its high visibility. He noted that while moving the office to Haliburton Village could provide a more central location, there were other

the heart of getaway country

Hockey tournaments are most definitely habit forming. I would not, however, suggest they be labelled with warnings because unlike many other things we may become addicted to they are not harmful or dangerous. About the worst that can be said in their regard is that they may consume large amounts of your time. However, when the enjoyment experienced is measured against that of other habit forming activities, such as sitting in front of the T.V. screen; there is no reason to begrudge the time that is devoted to tournaments.

I first became a tournament addict about 15 years ago when my son was a member of a tyke team competing in one. Neither he nor the team did all that well in that one, but the excitement of that tournament, and all the ones I have experienced since, have made me a confirmed incurable addict. It's the concentration of a championship that is won or lost over a period of only two or three days - the finality of every single game that means your team either proceeds to the next level or is eliminated from the tournament -- the pressure when a tied game must be decided by a shoot-off or sudden death overtime - and the sharing, the exuberance or the disappointment with the boys when the final whistle blows.

Heartbreaks are always short-lived in tournaments. After shedding a tear or two the defeated teams can be found cheering for the team that has just eliminated them from competition -- after all if you're going to get knocked out it's better to be able to say that the team that did it went all the way.

Since becoming an addict I have helped organize tournaments both here and in Toronto and I have attended tournaments in many towns and citites throughout Ontario and Quebec. The biggest thrill of all has got to be the Quebec International Pee Wee Tournament in Quebec City where 127,000 people jam into the Coliseum for ten full days to watch over 100 teams of 12 year old boys play hockey. Some teams travel fantastic distances spending large sums of money only to be eliminated in their first game. Certainly they are disappointed, but they all agree it was worth it and they would do it all over again.

It has always surprised me that there are so many more addicts in Quebec than we have in Ontario. The Quebec Winter Carnival which is now world famous grew out of the Pee Wee Tournament and owes its original success to the tournament addicts that attended and supported it. Here in Haliburton we can be proud of the fact that there are three tournaments run each winter that have earned International recognition as being among the best in their class. Those attending have enjoyed our hospitality but they often look around the half empty rink and ask if anyone lives here. We are somewhat short of tournament addicts and those of us who are can't understand why.

You don't have to have a boy on the ice to enjoy what is taking place, but many people get even more fun out of tournaments by billetting a couple of boys for the weekend and cheering for them and their teams. Some of us still get Christmas cards and notes from players we billetted years ago.

Haliburton and Minden have each won a championship in these local tournaments and that is quite a feat for both of them, considering that most of the teams that compete are from larger centres.

The Haliburton Bantams, two weeks ago defeated Agincourt, Huntsville and Keswick to win the B Championship before meeting Bowmanville in the Grand Championship. Indicative of what strange things happen in tournaments was that following that Haliburton-Bowmanville game both teams and all of their fans and parents were just bursting their buttons with pride - and justifiably so. Bowmanville of course because their excellent team had gone undefeated and won the C.W. Hodgson Memorial Grand Championship Trophy and Haliburton because they were still B Champions and, in a game against the vastly superior A Champions, they had done as much as anyone could ask of them...they had stayed in the game, given it their best shot, and in the process scored the only 4 goals against Bowmanville to be scored in the tournament.

If you are not yet a tournament addict you should seriously consider getting hooked. You'll be glad you did, and all the existing addicts will certainly welcome you to their group. Visit the Minden Pee Wee Tournament on January 2 and 3 and the Haliburton Pee Wee Tournament on January 9, 10 and 11.

Dorset school to provide K-4 classes in 1981-82

Parents in the Dorset area received a partial reprieve from the Haliburton County Board of Education last Tuesday (December 16) evening.

The board, meeting in its first gathering of the new term, has agreed to allow the Dorset school to remain open another year for students from kindergarten to grade 4. Students in classes from grade 5 to 8 will be taken by bus to the school in Dwight. The new arrangement will be in place for the 1980-81 school year.

A previous decision of the board, which had been vigorously opposed by Dorset area parents, called for the school to be closed entirely in June.

The parents and local citizens had complained about the closing because of the distance the young children would have to travel by bus to the Dwight school. There was also concern that people thinking of moving to the area would refuse to do so when they learned the school was closed. (According to some members of the community, there is a possibility the Ministry of the Environment may be expanding their acid rain research staff near Dorset and this could result in increased population).

The move by the Haliburton Board means some 12 to 15 grade 5 - 8 students from this county will be affected. The school also provides education for a number of Muskoka grade 5 - 8 students. They will probably have to be accommodated in Dwight or taken by bus to Huntsville.

The junior grades will include 25 students to be taught by two teachers.

Doug Hodgson, Director of Education for the Haliburton Board, said the situation at the Dorset school will have to come up for review again in the fall of 1981. He said the enrolment and needs of all schools in the system are reviewed each year.

Hodgson noted that the county population has shown a decline in the past year. "This does not auger well for the student population in the county," Hodgson commented. He predicted the decline would continue in the next few years, unless there was a change in the local economy.

"We are trying hard to keep that corner of the county in the Haliburton education system," Hodgson commented. He said he was aware of the potential political ramifications of turning education in the fringe areas of the county over to adjoining boards of education.

"The board just can't promise anything for the future," Hodgson stated. He pointed out that costs are bound to increase and the board would have to react by creating a more efficient method of providing education.

Parents' group backed by board

A fledgling parents' group has received the endorsement and support of the Haliburton County Board of Education. The backing came at the December 9 meeting of the board.

The group, fashioned on parent-teacher organizations in other communities, will now attempt to form separate organizations for each of the schools in the county. A schedule of meetings has been arranged by the organizers.

The board has agreed to allow the organizations to send notices home to parents through the students, advising of upcoming meetings.

The board has also agreed to provide the organization with space in the schools to hold their meetings. Members of the board who are interested in the activities of the organizations have also indicated their intention to attend the meetings when possible.

Meeting dates which have already been established by the steering committee are January 15 for Archie Stouffer Elementary School where Trustee Lloyd Johnson will be the guest speaker; February 5, Haliburton Senior Elementary School; February 19, Victoria Street School, Haliburton; and March 5, Haliburton Highlands Secondary School. Parents interested in more information on the group can contact Belinda Brown at 489-2346 or Judy Phillips 286-2316.

factors to consider such as the increased travel time to court in Lindsay.

For the moment however, these arguments appear to be moot points for according to the sergeant there is no possibility the detachment location is about to be changed.

County population growth slow - figures reveal

Population increase in Haliburton County has been limited according to census figures released last week. Throughout the county an increase of 167 permanent residents had been noted between 1978 and 1980.

While the county recorded the increase, several townships, including Anson, Hindon and Minden, showed decreases in populations. The population for Anson, Hindon and Minden dropped by 37, to 2350 permanent residents.

The main area of growth appears to have taken place in Dysart et al where 142 new permanent residents boosted the 1980 census to 3521. Other townships noting an increase in population were Cardiff, Lutterworth and Sherborne, McClintock and Livingstone.

The Bicroft Improvement District and Monmouth recorded no change in their populations during the past two years.

The following is a complete list of the townships in the county with corresponding permanent population figures. The figure in the brackets represents the 1978 census count while the following number is the 1980 count.

Anson, Hindon and Minden (2387) 2350.
Bicroft Improvement District (670) 670.
Cardiff (528) 532.
Dysart et al (3379) 3521.
Glamorgan (527) 520.
Lutterworth (554) 621.
Monmouth (710) 710.
Sherborne, McClintock & Livingstone (444) 460.
Snowdon (573) 562.
Stanhope (909) 902.
Total: (10,681) 10,848.

Electors

While the number of permanent residents in the county is growing very slowly, an increase in the number of electors has been more dramatic. This increase can be attributed to an increase in cottagers in the Highlands who would not be included in the count of permanent residents but who would be added to the list of voters in each municipality.

In only one township was the number of voters down from the figure in 1978. Cardiff Township lost 12 voters during that period while all other townships noted an increase.

The following figures outline the changes which have taken place in the number of electors in each township. The figure in brackets is the 1978 count while the following figure is the total for 1980.

Anson, Hindon & Minden (5079) 5180.
Bicroft Improvement District (578) 609.
Cardiff (2292) 2280.
Dysart et al (9675) 10,105.
Glamorgan (2493) 2548.
Lutterworth (2656) 2752.
Monmouth (1837) 1962.
Sherborne, McClintock & Livingstone (2856) 2957).
Snowdon (1624) 1670.
Stanhope (3661) 3736.
Total: (32,751) 33,799.

Cars collide on Hwy. 35

Nearly $4500 damages were incurred when two vehicles collided on Highway 35 south of Minden December 10.

The accident, which took place at 4:15 p.m., involved a pickup truck driven by Norah Little, 41, of Haliburton and a 1977 model van being driven by Ronald Powell, 57, of the Orillia area.

Little was travelling north on the highway when she lost control of her vehicle and it struck the oncoming van. The pickup truck sustained $3000 damage with police estimating the van at $1500.

Little was taken to Minden Hospital suffering from minor injuries.

The accident was investigated by Constable Weldon Popp.

No licence

A charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's licence has been laid against a Haliburton woman following an accident December 11 on Highway 121 east of the Allsaw bridge.

Ruth Fluegel, 56, of Haliburton was travelling west when her vehicle began to slide sideways along the north shoulder. A second car, driven by Alex Kernohan, 38, of Minden, was also travelling in a westerly direction and was unable to avoid striking the rear of the Fluegel vehicle as it swerved on the road.

Damage to the Fluegel vehicle was estimated at $1000 while the Kernohan van sustained $25 damage.

Constable Al Bibby investigated the mishap.

Impaired charge

A driver from Toronto, 20 year old David F. Barker, has been charged with impaired driving following a single car accident December 14 on Penninsula Drive in Haliburton.

The accused was travelling south on the road when he lost control of his car and struck a tree on the east side of the road. Damage to the 1977 model car was estimated at $1500.

The accident was investigated by Constable Bob Pearson of the Minden OPP.

Single car accident

Approximately $1000 damage was done to a 1976 model car when it struck a number of guideposts along the shoulder of Highway 530. The mishap took place December 13 at 11:20 p.m.

Police report that the driver, 20 year old Suzanne Penney of Carnarvon was travelling west when she lost control of the car and hit the posts on the north shoulder.

Constable Terry Brown investigated the accident.

Saturday streets

We couldn't help but note the fine job the municipal road crew did in clearing the snow from the downtown area Sunday morning. The main street was virtually free of snow from gutter to gutter.

It is unfortunate however, that the same attention could not have been paid to the streets Saturday morning. Drivers found lots of snow along the edge of the street causing a number to become bogged down and pedestrians to walk through the piles.

A number of downtown merchants were upset by the situation, and rightly so. Twelve days before Christmas is not the time to discourage or anger shoppers, particularly when an effort is being made to capture some of the shopping dollars which flee this area for larger centres.

What is needed is a co-ordinated effort on the part of the municipality to ensure, when possible, the downtown streets are cleared of accumulated snow, particularly on potentially important shopping days, like last Saturday.

Sound advice

While the Highlands area continues to be an attractive area for cottagers, few individuals have taken up permanent residence here. These findings were revealed in a 1978-1980 census list released recently by county officials.

The figures point to the need for more than just tourism if this area is to grow. Tourism is an important sector of the Highland's economy, and it should be encouraged, however the county is going to need something more than tourist dollars to create the growth which is desperately needed.

The county's new warden, Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey, placed economic growth high on his list of priorities when he made his inaugural address Monday night. He noted that federal and provincial assistance through DREE will probably be the key to any dramatic boost to the Haliburton economy. But, he also challenged the councillors and indirectly, all members of the community, to promote this area, seek out new growth and not permit one opportunity, no matter how small, to slip by.

Sound advice for the difficult times ahead.

Christmas lights in Minden.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

By John Eakins, M.P.P.

With the Legislature proroguing for the Christmas vacation, there are many things I might write about this week. I have decided to use this space to outline Bill 82 recently passed, for it will have a great effect on many lives and education budgets in the years ahead. Our party, through our critic John Sweeney, M.P.P., and Alf Stong, M.P.P., played a major role in the final acceptance of this bill. Although you will be reading more about it in due time, I will give you a quick outline of what the bill is intended to do.

WHAT IS BILL 82? Bill 82 is an Act that ensures that every exceptional pupil in the Province of Ontario receives an education suited to his or her needs and abilities.

WHY IS BILL 82 NEEDED? The Education Act, 1974, contained only permissive legislation for special education. A school board could, if it wished, provide special education programs and special education services for its exceptional pupils. Although most boards provided some programs, Bill 82 removes the optional status of special education and makes it the definite responsibility of all school boards to provide special education programs for students.

WHAT DOES BILL 82 DO? Bill 82 ensures: Universal access of all Ontario school age pupils to a publicly supported education, regardless of the pupil's special needs; the provision of special education programs and special education services that meet the needs of exceptional pupils; involvement and participation of the parents or guardians of exceptional pupils in the assessment, identification and placement of such pupils, including the right to withhold permission for a particular placement and the right to require a review of the pupil's placement at any time.

WHAT IS "UNIVERSAL ACCESS"? Universal access means that: the bill provides that every child of school age must be enrolled in school upon presentation by the parent or guardian; effective September 1, 1985, public and separate school boards will be required to provide for the education of their trainable retarded pupils; effective September 1, 1985, the existence of an exceptionality no longer will be a justifiable reason for not receiving instruction from a school board; it is possible that in a small number of cases, it could be found that a particular child is a "hard to serve pupil" who cannot profit from instruction. In these cases the school board will assist the parent or guardian to locate appropriate care or treatment services. An appeal mechanism is available where the parent or guardian disagrees.

WHAT IS MEANT BY THE "PROVISION OF SPECIAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS AND SPECIAL EDUCATION SERVICES FOR EXCEPTIONAL PUPILS"? The following definitions are helpful in understanding the major terms in the bill for special education: "Exceptional pupil" means a pupil whose behavioural, communicational, intellectual, physical or multiple exceptionalities are such that he or she is considered by a board committee to need placement in a special education program. "Special education program" means an educational program that is based on and modified by the results of continuous assessment and evaluation and that includes a plan containing specific objectives and an outline of educational services that meets the needs of the exceptional pupil.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "INVOLVEMENT AND PARTICIPATION OF THE PARENTS OR GUARDIANS"? The rights and responsibilities of the parents or guardians of exceptional pupils are protected by their: involvement in early identification procedures; providing informed consent for assessments and placements; requesting and participating in the review of the placement of the pupil; power to appeal the identification and placement of the pupil.

Report from Parliament

by William C. Scott, M.P.

On December 4 the Bank of Canada raised the bank rate to 14.76 per cent, almost a full per centage point above the rate for the previous week. The Bank of Canada rate has been increasing weekly for the past few weeks, indicating that interest rates in Canada are caught in a steady upward spiral.

This uncontrolled rise in interest rates, coupled with double-digit inflation, has led economists to predict that Prime Minister Trudeau's projected economic recovery in mid-1981 will in fact be a devastating economic recession.

After the Bank of Canada was allowed to let interest rates float last March 13, interest rates climbed by April 2 to a record high of 16.2 per cent. During the summer months the rate dropped to a low of 10.18 per cent, and then began to rise again.

While rates were low, many people purchased homes, because it appeared that at long last they could afford the payments. Unfortunately, those who have open-end mortgages, where interest rates can be raised as the Bank of Canada rate increases, are caught in the squeeze.

Even more seriously affected are those whose mortgages are coming up for renewal. Many if not all of these mortgage-holders are going to be hit with an increase in their mortgage rate of three or four per centage points. First-time home buyers will be shut out of the market by these increases.

For example, with a mortgage of $50,000, and an interest rate of 10.5 per cent, a home-owner would pay about $5,250 in first-year interest payments.

On the same mortgage, an interest rate of 16 per cent would mean that the home-owner would pay approximately $8,000 in first-year interest payments. With house prices rising steadily because of inflation, and the increased cost of money for home-construction, a prospective home buyer would be in the position of having to allot too great a portion of total annual income for mortgage payments.

Everybody is being caught by this spiral of inflation and interest rates, the renter as well as the buyer. As interest rates rise, so does the cost of financing rental properties. While landlords in Ontario can only raise monthly rentals by six per cent per year, owners of new rental properties can fix their own rates when they first go on the market.

Small businesses are generally the hardest hit by uncontrolled interest rates, especially the un-incorporated business. While incorporated businesses can take advantage of the Small Business Development Bond program initiated by the Clark government last year, and put in place by the present government, incorporated businesses constitute only a small per cent of the total business community.

Choir a delight to the ear and eye

Once again the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Choral Society, under the direction of Marilyn Stouffer, has proven its ability and range. They delighted an audience of close to 200 Wednesday evening as the group presented the second in a series of concerts sponsored by the Guild.

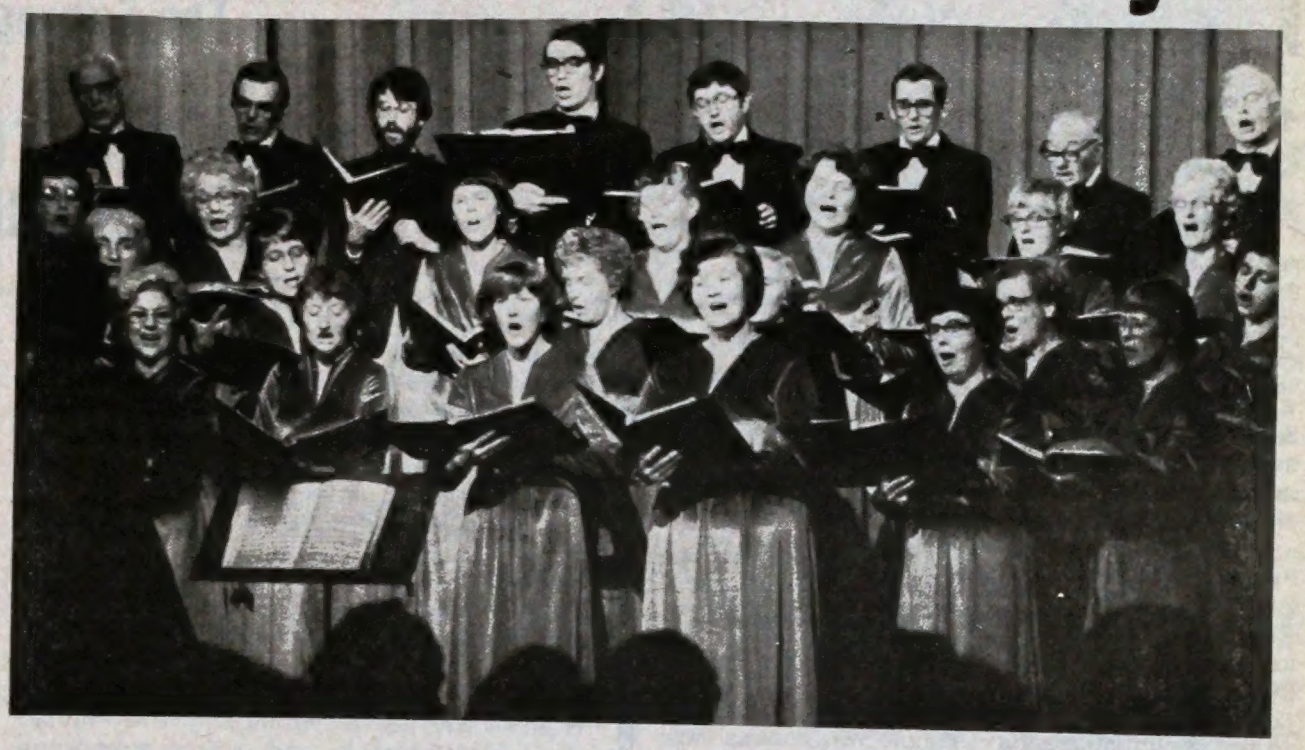
The program was an interesting and melodic blend of songs from all corners of the world and covering the full range of emotions. A number of the songs were familiar tunes, with many having been heard at previous choral society presentations. Others proved to be delightful surprises or interesting vocal renditions.

The 40 member choral group was accompanied by Catherine Kellett on the piano.

The concert included a section of Christmas music as well as selections from Broadway musicals and international folk songs.

Many of the selections needed no introduction, but a number of less familiar tunes might have been enjoyed more by the audience if some commentary as to their origin or background could have been given.

We would be remiss if we did not mention the gowns worn by the ladies of the choir. This was apparently the first time the new gowns had been worn for a major concert. The choir has always been a delight to the ear and now their new outfits (the men in dark blazers and bow ties) make their presentation visually appealing as well.



Members of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Choral Society raise their voices in song.

Winter driving reminders issued by OPP

Winter weather has brought a number of changes to the driving routine. The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police has requested that the following sections of the Highway Traffic Act be brought to the attention of area drivers so they can become aware of their responsibilities.

Windows to be cleared (Section 48)

No person shall drive a motor vehicle upon a highway, a-unless the windshield and the windows on either side of the compartment containing the steering wheel are in a condition as to afford the driver a clear view to the front and side of the motor vehicle: and b-unless the rear window is in such a condition as to afford the driver a clear view to the rear of the motor vehicle.

Part 'b' does not apply to a motor vehicle that is equipped with a mirror or mirrors securely attached to the motor vehicle and placed in such a position and maintained in such a condition as to afford the driver, otherwise than through the rear window, a clearly reflected view of the roadway to the rear or of any vehicle approaching from the rear.

Parked interfering (Section 116)

1a-No person shall park, stand or stop a vehicle on a roadway, when it is practicable to park, stand or stop the vehicle off the roadway; or b-when it is not practicable to park, stand or stop the vehicle off the roadway unless a clear view of the vehicle and the roadway for at least 125 metres beyond the vehicle may be obtained from a distance of at least 125 metres from the vehicle in each direction upon the highway.

(10) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, no person shall park or stand a vehicle on a highway in such a manner as to interfere with the movement of traffic or the clearing of snow from the highway.

(13) A constable or an officer appointed for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act, upon discovery of any vehicle parked or standing in contravention of subsection (10) or of a municipal by-law, may cause it to be moved or taken to and placed or stored in a suitable place and all costs and charges for removing, care and storage thereof, if any, are a

Ice warning

The OPP urge all snowmobile operators to be very cautious before operating a snowmobile on any of the area lakes. The ice on some of the lakes has been undermined by recent flow of the run off water during the past mild spell.

We are aware of a number of snowmobiles which have gone through the ice in the past week. If you intend to operate on a lake check the ice thickness at several locations along your intended route. Areas with 4-5 inches of ice today may only have about 1 inch tomorrow. Stay well clear of any streams or rivers no matter how "safe" the ice may appear in the vicinity.

Cold water can kill - please stay off the lakes until the ice has properly formed.

Bull session

Cowboys and would-be cowboys will have a chance to test how they could stand up in a western rodeo this week.

A mechanical bull, similar to the machine seen in the movie Urban Cowboy, will be at the Rockcliffe Hotel this week until Saturday.

The bull provides a realistic ride similar to those experienced by rodeo contestants. Travelling with suitable floor padding, the machine is operated by Glen Lovering of Coldwater. He controls the bucking and turning of the machine and can bring it to a complete stop immediately if necessary.

Rockcliffe owner Dave Willis stated that a contest for style will be held Saturday evening for those who feel they have mastered the intricasies of the machine.

Chaps and spurs are not necessary, but only under extremely unusual circumstances will riders be allowed on the machine without a cowboy hat on.

lien upon the vehicle, which may be enforced in the manner provided by section 48 of the Mechanic's Lien Act.

Deposit snow on roadway (Section 124a)

No person shall deposit snow or ice on a roadway without permission in writing so to do, from the Ministry (MTC) or the road authority responsible for the maintenance of the road.

With everyone's co-operation in complying with the above mentioned sections from the Highway Traffic Act, there would be a substancial reduction in the number of motor vehicle collisions occurring in the County during the winter months.

Otonabee takes tourney - Haliburton consolation champs

Two out-of-town teams captured the championship and consolation trophies in the annual Minden Minor Hockey Bantam Tournament played Saturday in Minden. One of the trophies, however, will be staying in the Haliburton Highlands.

The Bantam squad from Haliburton captured the consolation honours in the play-down, defeating the entry from Little Britain in the final match by a 4-1 score. The championship trophy was awarded to Otonabee after they defeated Bobcaygeon 5-0 in the final game of the day.

Eight teams were entered in the one day tournament. Minden opened the busy day with an 8 o'clock encounter with Fenelon Falls. Perhaps it was the hour, but the local team bowed to the visitors with a score of 7-0. Fenelon took the lead early, scoring three goals in the first period and held the Minden boys to a scoreless three frames.

In other opening games Haliburton and Bobcaygeon played to a 2-2 tie. The Bobcaygeon squad advanced to the championship series by virtue of the fact they had scored the first goal in the game. Kevin Warburton and Barry Boice scored the Haliburton goals. Beaverton defeated Little Britain 8-4 and Otonabee trounced Burks Falls 13-2.

In the consolation series the Minden Bantams met familiar players as they faced their counterparts from Haliburton. The Minden team made a valiant effort but lost the match in the dying minutes of the game as the visitors poured on the power. The two teams were scoreless after two periods of play and then Rob MacLeod put Minden on the map with a goal at the 1:05 mark of the final period. John Dillon and Mike Gorveatt picked up the assists. Haliburton evened the score at the 8:04 mark, with Mike McNaull scoring unassisted.

As the game drew to a close the Haliburton team pulled their goaltender in favour of six attackers. The strategy worked and Kelly Mitchell connected on a pass from Barry Boice.

In an attempt to regain the tie, Minden attempted the same manoeuvre, however Kevin Warburton was able to slip past the Minden defenses and scored into the empty net with the assist going to Mike MacNaull. The 3-1 loss ended Minden's participation in the tournament and set the stage for Haliburton's 4-1 victory over Little Britain to claim the consolation honours. Earlier in the day Little Britain had defeated Burks Falls 5-2.

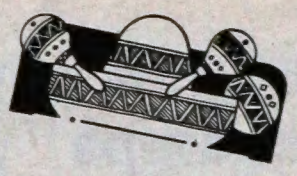
On the championship side of the ledger Fenelon Falls and Bobcaygeon played to a 2-2 tie in the second round with Bobcaygeon being awarded the win by scoring the first goal of the game. Otonabee defeated Beaverton 5-1 to advance to the final.

The Haliburton Bantams received the Gord Monk trophy and silver medals for all the players for winning the consolation championship while the Otonabee Bantams were presented with the Yake Electric trophy and gold medallions for their championship effort.

Minden goalie Scott Hamilton smothers the puck during a Haliburton drive in the second game of the consolation round Saturday. The Haliburton team went on to win the game and take the consolation championship in the annual bantam tournament.

The puck slips by the far post after being shot by a Minden player (white uniform) at the Haliburton netminder.

Letters from Lee



Lee Potter is a local high school student who is spending a year in Mexico as an exchange student. She is taking part in a program sponsored by Rotary International and supported by the Minden Rotary Club. Lee has agreed to share her experiences in Mexico with The Times readers through the letters she sends home to her family. The following are excerpts from letters written in late October and early November.

The weather has been getting a little CHILLY lately. Right now I'm sitting in my room wearing a large winter coat to help me keep warm. Today was actually the first really cold day, but boy, was it a doozy! It was rainy, windy and cold. And here the buildings and homes do not have central heating, so everyone sits in school with heavy coats on ... It is funny though, most of the exchange students were very quiet today. The cold weather kind of reminds me of home.

I have lots of tan now and am even darker than my Mexican friend, Javier. He says I could pass for a Mexican, as long as I didn't open my mouth.

School is going pretty good still. Last week we wrote exams and I did very well on them: Appreciation of Paintings - 63%; Spanish grammar - 30%; history - 90%; chemistry - 80%; English - 90%. In the English class I have to do all the work in Spanish while the other students are working in English .... Today I had to do a presentation on a Mexican poet in one of my classes. The class had a good laugh anyway ... I don't know why, but they seem to find my accent amusing.

My Spanish is improving steadily. The verbs are giving me the most problem mainly because there are so many of them. When we went shopping before leaving Canada, we saw the book on 501 Spanish verbs while all the other languages had 101. That is my problem. The Rotary Club has arranged for the exchange students to take Spanish lessons at 6 p.m. each day. The classes include some Mexican culture which should be interesting.

At the end of this month I will be going to Mexico City with my sister. We're going for the weekend and will be staying with some friends of hers there.

Yesterday my grandmother visited for lunch. She is very nice and always reminds me to give her a kiss when I see her, as is one of the customs here. For lunch we had deep fried tongue, which I though was very good until my mother told me what it was, then I thought for sure I was going to be sick. However, I made it through the meal with just looking a little green...

We recently visited a place called Aquacalientes for the weekend. The name means "hot waters" and refers to the hot springs which are found in the area. We planned to go swimming in them, but ran out of time. The town is about a six hour drive from Saltillo. The first part of the trip goes through desert as Coahuila, my state, is a desert state. The roads run straight as a bullet until they reach the mountains in the State of Zacatecas. We followed the winding roads up through the mountains and into the State of Aquacalientes. Before we reached the city we passed through fields and vineyards. Aquacalientes is well-known for its wine and the city is surrounded by vineyards. It is about the same size as Saltillo, but in the winter it gets much colder as it is at a higher altitude.

I travelled with my sister, Laura, and two of her friends. The first night we had hot milk with sugar before going to bed. The milk was fresh from the cow ... delicious! The next day we toured the city and later attended a rodeo taking place in the city. It had been on all week, but on that day Saltillo was competing. I met lots of people I knew from school and elsewhere who had driven up for the rodeo. It was very different as I'd never really seen a rodeo, Mexican or otherwise. In one of the competitions five guys ride around the ring in a circle chasing a little horse. They lasso him around one of his legs, he falls and the crowd just roars and cheers. The poor horse stands up, he is covered with about an inch of mud, they untie his leg, and they start chasing him again. It sounds strange but it was a lot of fun.

Later we got all dressed up and went to a big fiesta for the rodeo. Laura introduced me to a friend of hers, a doctor, and he spent the night teaching me all the Mexican dances. We left the fiesta at 5 a.m. and went out for tacos before heading home at about 6 o'clock. My feet had gigantic blisters, but it was worth it ...

I didn't get to Mexico City as was earlier planned since the weekend Laura and I were to go, her boyfriend arrived in Saltillo to visit. It was probably just as well we didn't go because that same weekend there was a fairly large earthquake there.

A few days ago it was Hallow'een here. Only the children of poor people go out. They ask for money and if you do not give it to them they throw tomatoes at your house. They start trick or treating two days before the thirty-first and finish two days after.

The Mexicans celebrate the "day of the dead" on November 2. Everyone takes food and flowers and places them on the graves of their ancestors. All the cemeteries are packed with people and gifts.

Last week I was taken to meet the Mayor Saltillo. He was very nice and seemed awfully young to be a mayor. He invited us to work for him and to go horseback riding at his ranch.

I have started my Spanish lessons now but everything that has been taught so far I already know. I haven't been to volleyball practice in over a week because the lessons are held at the same time. I don't know what I am going to do, if all the exchange students can't play, there won't be a team since we pretty well are the team.

On November 14 the Rotary Club will be holding a big dance ... all very fancy. All the different service clubs in the city are invited and each has chosen a girl to represent them. And guess who will be representing the Saltillo Rotary Club. Mrs. Savaaxdra (my counsellor's wife) has been taking me all over to find just the right dress for the occasion. She says my long blue one is nice but not suitable. I'm supposed to 'stand out' I'm told, so all of the dresses are very fancy. It should prove to be quite an experience.

I went to the ballet at the theatre with the Rotary Club. I didn't know what I was going to see, but as it turned out it was the "Nutcracker", which I have already seen in Toronto. It was excellent and I enjoyed it as did the other students who had never seen a ballet before.

I may be changing schools after this semester is over. According to the Rotary Club we can attend one of two schools in Saltillo, the Techiquito which I now attend and which is mainly for the upper class, and the Ateneo, attended by everyone else. I think I'd like to see the other side of things ...

Before this opportunity slips by I would like to wish everyone in Minden and Haliburton a very Merry Christmas from Mexico and a Happy New Year.

Adios, Lee.

The autumn frosts have nipped the last of the hardy wildflowers, and the summer birds have retreated southward, but now is a fine season to take up tree-watching. Relieved from their leafy garb, winter trees show their real character in the sweep of their branches and the lacy patterns of barren twigs.

Perhaps the best way to start tree watching is to visit some of the biggest and best. The Ontario Forestry Association has compiled our finest specimen trees into an Honour Roll of Trees, with one or two candidates of each species listed according to a point score for size and stature. Their list makes fascinating reading.

Ontario's largest sugar maple, for example, is on a small piece of Conservation Authority land near North Pelham, in the Niagara Peninsula. Known as "Old Glory" or the Comfort Maple, this magnificent tree has a height of 82 feet, and a crown spread in a nearly perfect circle also of 82 feet. Its trunk, 71 inches in diameter, has grown over a life of 475 years, yet this tree is still vigorous and healthy, and well worth a special trip to see in any season.

The Dundas elm is another breathtaking tree, located on Park St. near Dundas, with a trunk diameter of 60 inches, a height of 97 feet, and a crown spread of 112 feet, this American elm has been lucky to avoid the ravages of Dutch elm disease that has felled so many of its kind. It is lucky also to escape the plans of its former owner, who planned to demolish the elm to build townhouses. Fortunately, a local couple who valued the tree bought the property to enable its preservation.

The largest tree in Ontario? Based on overall points, an American sycamore near Alvinston captures the honour, but a white pine close to Algonquin Park is taller, at 148 feet. Strangely, one of the commonest trees in Ontario, the Black Spruce, is not yet included in the Honour Roll because no one has yet singled out an exceptional spruce for nomination. More details on the Honour Roll are available from the Ontario Forestry Association, 150 Consumers Road, Willowdale, M2J 1P9.

Intruder detained

The owner of a home near Minden detained an intruder until police arrived December 10. The man had entered the home owned by George Gudgeon, R.R. 1 Minden.

According to police, Gudgeon apprehended James H. Hancock after he had broken into his home by smashing a window.

Hancock has been charged with break and enter with intent and will appear January 5 in Provincial Court in Lindsay to answer to the charge.

Constable Al Bibby investigated the incident.

FUELWOOD SALE

Tenders will be received by the Ministry of Natural Resources up to and including January 6, 1981, 12:00 noon, for approximately 56 cords of fuelwood.

The wood is mainly hard maple with a mixture of other hardwoods. It is located at the Municipal (i.e. Anson, Hindon and Minden) borrow pit, approximately 3 miles north of Minden on the Bobcaygeon Road. Further particulars may be obtained from the Ministry of Natural Resources, Minden, Ontario. KOM 2KO.

The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

The Christmas season is drawing near, and it is a particularly busy time at Hyland Crest. Punch and Crackers Fun Night was held November 27 in the evening. We enjoyed the music of Mr. Ray Jenkins on the piano and Mr. Norm Graham on the fiddle. The residents enjoyed watching the staff doing a square dance. Mr. Russell Robertson called for the dance. The residents and staff participated in a treasure hunt, and pass the balloon. The highlight of the evening was when six of our gentlemen guests and one of our resident ladies dressed in costumes and sang about the Seven Old Ladies. During the evening everyone enjoyed the fruit punch and the assortment of cheese, crackers and cold cuts. It was a real fun night and I would like to thank the residents on behalf of the staff for a wonderful Christmas party.

December 4th, the staff presented the residents with the Christmas Concert. As usual everyone had sore sides from laughing at the end of the show. The whole staff was involved in a hilarious program.

The nursing staff started the ball rolling in a very funny version of The Night Before Christmas. The Hyland Crest Hillbilly Band made an appearance again this year, a special request by the residents. This group, which is made up of the laundry and housekeeping staff, can sure present some toe-tapping music.

The Kitchen Staff presented a schoolroom play, which was written by Winnifred Danilko. Joyce Bacon of the laundry staff played the part of a very strict teacher, who tried her best to handle a class of misbehaved students. She managed to get them organized enough at the end of the play to sing Rudolph. I believe this play was one of the funniest in the program.

The Wee Willies were three very odd-looking people who did a dance to the tune of the Gay Gorden. The Wee Willies were Ellen Holden, Marianne Helsby, who are volunteers and myself.

Guests for Ten was presented by the office staff. It was about two uppity auxiliary members who tried to make soup out of Mrs. Green's husbands underwear, which she was sterilizing.

The Gambler was sung by Ian Brohm and the gamblers were portrayed by the kitchen, laundry, housekeeping and activities staff. I ended up getting shot in this one.

The Months of the Year was made up of members from each department. Dick Shell made the cutest New Year's Baby I've ever seen. I would like to congratulate the whole staff of Hyland Crest on a job well done. The concert this year was the best yet.

Monday, the eighth, some of our residents went to Lindsay to shop. I understand they spent a very enjoyable day. Many thanks to the volunteers who went along.

Tuesday morning Rev. Wicks of the Minden Gospel Church held service in the Chapel. Mrs. Agnes Taylor played the organ for our hymns and some Christmas Carols.

Thursday afternoon, the ladies of the Eastern Star in Haliburton brought a delicious assortment of Christmas cake and cheese for the Tea Party. We enjoyed a sing song with the ladies after the lunch was served.

Friday evening, the residents enjoyed the singing of Christmas music by the Haliburton Anglican Church choir. Mr. Bill Gliddon accompanied them on the piano. It was a very enjoyable evening and a lovely way to end the week of activities at Hyland Crest.

Icicles are the jewels of winter,
A wondrous display,
Delicately hung in shining array,
Fringing the house eaves in garlands so gay,
Sparkling gems, oh why can't you stay,
When along comes a bright shiny day,
So quietly you vanish away.

There was a draw at various stores for more Wintario Toques with winners being at Stedmans, T. Turnbull; at Mae's, Anne Pittman; at Drug Store, David Peacock, and at Brown Owl, E. Tillotson.

There is a magic about Christmas
No matter what is your creed.
Very many persons have their Mass,
Others just make a good deed,
Their objective. In our Canada so broad,
We visit and wish all well,
Everyone should thank God
And listen for that happy Bell.
In our time of great trouble,
Here's hoping Your Holiday
Will bring to you and yours, a double
Measure of Happiness in every way!

Jay

Happy Holiday. There was a raffle by Our Lady of Fatima Church with winner of dinner for two at Mr. Fogg's, Helen Allore; and Cheese and Jam Tray from Dollo's was Tony Webers of Fergus.

Just a little tribute to a great friend, Lydia Coulter, who has just died; what a grand lady, jolly and busy all of her lifetime with her family, her church and her friends. If she couldn't do something good for you she would certainly not say anything bad. We will all miss her.

Snow can cause a heart attack. If you doubt it, just ask the kid next door what he'll charge to shovel your drive, or walk.

* * *

St. Paul's Anglican Church will be having their Carol Service this Sunday morning at 11. Father Hutchinson will be here for the morning service December 28th so you may look ahead to that.

This is the season for good wishes, so we would like to join in and wish every one of our readers the very happiest Christmas with many a laugh and enjoyment of everything, but take it easy on those goodies!

Snow and more snow seems to be here this season, just get dug out and there we go again. Drive carefully. Cheerio until next time.

Lines from Lutterworth

by Jean Lacey

Hi! I have an apology to make. So sorry I missed the column last week. We went to Shelburne for a visit which turned out to be a surprise birthday party for me and I ended up in the hospital, so didn't get home till Saturday. I'll try not to let such a thing happen again.

Wayne and Elaine Anderson celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary Saturday evening. We send our congratulations and best wishes.

Kevin and Ruby Bowron were blessed with a 7 lb. 5 oz. baby boy on Saturday, December 6th. The new Christmas present's name is Ross Kenneth Harvey Bowron. We send our love and best wishes to the proud parents.

Mr. & Mrs. Noetzel were up to their cottage over the weekend but didn't leave until Sunday morning, sure hope they made it home as a lot of highways were closed because of high winds with drifting snow.

Our prayers and sympathies go out to the Coulter family in the loss of their beloved mother, Mrs. Lydia Coulter.

They are not lost, our well beloved,
Nor have they travelled far--
Just stepped inside God's loveliest room

We have a lot of Christmas story books at the Library. Start a new tradition for yourselves by reading to the children Christmas Eve.

This is my Christmas Card to all:

Holly on the mantel
Makes the season bright...
Snow upon the landscape,
Carols in the night.
Good old-fashioned greetings
Come from hearts sincere...
Yuletide's fondest moments
Filled with warmth and cheer.
So from our house to your house
Comes this wish and prayer that all the joys of Christmas-time
Will come to greet you there.

Hint of the Week

Remember to keep your fresh Christmas tree well watered. If it is too much trouble to put lights on the tree just use a lamp with a coloured bulb and place it at the back of the tree. It will look very effective.

Leisure is a fine companion, but boredom is his brother.

Kid's Korner

Here is a very simple recipe for you children to make (with a little help from Mother). You can make candy canes, Christmas trees, Santa Claus, or anything else you can think of. All you need is 2 cups of flour, 1/2 cup of salt and 3/4 cups of water. You mix it all together and make your decorations and then bake it in the oven at 250 degrees for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until they are hard all the way through (this is where Mother comes in). When they have cooled you can paint them. Don't forget if you want to hang your decorations up you will have to put a paper clip or a piece of wire in your decoration BEFORE it goes in the oven. If you want to make a ring put a piece of aluminum foil that is rolled up, in the hole during the baking time.

Why should you take a pencil up to bed with you?

To draw the curtains with.

Why did the farmer take a needle into his fields?

To sow the corn.

Why is a boxer like a candle?

Because a good blow will put them both out.

If you have a referee in the game of football, and an umpire in cricket, what do you have bowls?

Goldfish

Riddle me, riddle me, what is that,
Over the head, and under the hat?

Hair.

Take it easy. Bye for now. God bless till next time.

To the Kinmount and area fans our team finally did it last Thursday and beat Norland 7 to 1. Doug Pearson made up for lost time and scored 5 goals. John Barkwell and John Dettman got 1 goal each. The team brought Brad Hartin out of retirement for this game. It must have worked.

On Saturday night this great team won again against Burnt River 17 to 11. Shawn Silver got 9 goals, Dennis Stata got 4 goals and Mike McBirdie 3 goals. Roland Hamilton did a good job in net. Kenny Cooper stood in to make up this team of 5 players only. The rest of the team got lost somewhere and didn't make it to the game.

The Kiddies party at Galway hall was enjoyed by all. Special thanks to a few hard working people for this effort.

To Violet and Keith Sisson, a happy 54th Wedding Anniversary and Happy Birthday to Violet also on December 20th.

Simone Harrison

Christmas greetings to all.
Just trust in Our Lord Jesus and you will see,
What a difference it will turn out to be.
I am sure it will work for you, you'll see!
For He sure has worked miracles out for me.
If we trust, we do not worry,
If we worry we do not trust,
So just trust in the Lord with all your soul and heart,
Don't worry, for he is one who will never part.
Then someday, you'll be able to say,
The Lord is helping me, in the very same way.
